

km482 Red Wine (fruity)

km482 – at the place of their family ancestry, Louis Guntrum launches the new km482 brand. km482 is the Rhein river kilometer mark at Nierstein. The range reflects the diversity of wines from Rheinhessen. The reference to the Rhein river represents the background of the LOUIS GUNTRUM family, who have been native to Nierstein for generations. km482 caters to a mid-price market segment and complements the high-class LOUIS GUNTRUM core assortment.

11,5 % alcohol

- 100% Dornfelder: most popular German red wine grape. Cross of Helfensteiner x Heroldrebe. First grown in 1955.
- Appellation: Rheinhessen / Germany
Loam and clay soil.
- Heat maceration. Fermentation in stainless steel. One filtration prior to bottling. Ageing in stainless steel.
- Cherry red color, aromatic scent of cherries and blackberries. Soft tannins, smooth fruity finish.

Enjoy it slightly chilled with chips, cheese or as a companion of your main course of pasta or meat.

Origin | Nature | Inspiration | Desire